

Data and image Processing Flow Diagram for POST request

A object of content entity is then created using the text, integer and url recied after saving the data to AWS S3.
This object it then stored in Database using data JPA.

public url is then retrived.

MySQL DB instance